NOTIFICATION.

Simla, the 9th September 1872.

No. 10 of 1872.—The following Quarantine Rules, submitted by the Government of Fort St. George, having been approved by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, are published under the provisions of Section 2, Act I. of 1870 :

Rules relating to Quarantine for the ports mentioned in Schedule A. hereto annexed.

The following rules, made by His Excellency the Governor of Madras in Council, with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, in pursuance of the provisions contained in Act I. of 1870, are hereby promulgated for general information :

I.—The master or other person in charge of any vessel about to enter any of the ports mentioned in Schedule A. annexed hereto, in which any case or cases of cholera, yellow fever, Asiatic plague, small-pox, or other disease dangerous to the general health, may have occurred within a period of ten days previous to the date of the arrival of such ship or vessel at any of the ports aforesaid, shall notify this fact by hoisting a signal, which signal shall be in the day time a yellow flag at the fore, and in the night time two lighted lanterns, one over the other, at the same mast-head; and such master, or other person as aforesaid, shall not take up anchoring ground within the said port without having obtained the previous sanction of the Master Attendant or other officer in charge of the port, nor without such leave shall he hold any communication with the shore, or with any shipping within the said port.

II.—Whenever the master or other person in charge of any vessel about to enter any of the ports aforesaid is unable to produce a clean bill of health obtained from the proper authority at the port last visited, he shall notify this fact to the Master Attendant or other officer in charge of the port by hoisting a signal as aforesaid, and thenceupon the Master Attendant or other officer in charge of the port may, on the report of the Port Surgeon or other officer appointed by the Government in that behalf, suggesting or warranting the adoption of such a measure, refuse to permit the master or other person as aforesaid to anchor his vessel within the ordinary limits of the said port, and may forbid all communication between the vessel and the shore until a quarantine of observation, not exceeding twenty-four hours from the receipt of the report of the Port Surgeon or other officer appointed by Government in that behalf, shall have been enforced.

III.—It shall be the duty of the Port Surgeon or other officer appointed by Government in that behalf to proceed without delay on board any vessel about to enter any of the ports aforesaid in which any case or cases of cholera, yellow fever, Asiatic plague, small-pox, or other disease dangerous to the general health, shall have occurred within ten days previous to the date of the arrival of such vessel as aforesaid, or whenever the master or other person in charge of any vessel is unable to produce a clean bill of health from the port last visited, and such Surgeon or other officer as aforesaid shall inspect the crew and passengers of every vessel as aforesaid, and make careful inquiry as to the nature of the diseases then existing on board every such vessel, and make a report thereon to the Master Attendant or other officer in charge of the said port.

IV.—Upon the receipt of the report of the Port Surgeon or other officer appointed by Government in that behalf, the Master Attendant or other officer in charge of the port shall determine whether any passengers or merchandise may be landed, or whether the master or other person in charge of such vessel shall be required to proceed to a quarantine anchorage, or to put out to sea, or to anchor beyond the limits of the port in such place as may be appointed for that purpose by the Master Attendant or other officer in charge of the port, or to undergo a quarantine of observation.

V.—Whenever cholera, yellow fever, Asiatic plague, small-pox, or other diseases dangerous to the general health, shall be actually prevailing amongst any of the crew or passengers of any vessel as aforesaid, and none of those diseases shall exist at the time in the neighbourhood of the port which the said vessel is about to enter or has entered, it shall be the duty of the Port Surgeon or other officer appointed by Government in that behalf to report this state of the facts to the Master Attendant or other officer in charge of the port. Thenceupon the Master Attendant or other officer in charge of the port shall require the master or other person in charge of such vessel as aforesaid to take the said vessel out to sea for a period of ten days, or to anchor at any place to be appointed for that purpose for a period of ten days.

VI.—All persons on board vessels in quarantine are hereby prohibited from communicating with the shore beyond the limits of any place which may be set apart for performing quarantine on shore, or with any vessel in the roadstead, or vicinity, of the roadstead, unless the permission of an officer duly authorized by the Government of Madras in that behalf shall have been previously obtained, and all persons are hereby prohibited from going on board any vessel in quarantine, unless the permission of an officer duly authorized by the said Government in that behalf shall have been previously obtained.

VII.—It shall be lawful for every officer, duly authorized by the Government of Madras in that behalf, to appoint a sufficient number of subordinates for the purpose of enforcing these rules at the expense of the owners of such vessels, and the master or other person in charge of such vessels shall pay the subordinates so appointed, and defray all expenses incurred in pursuance of this rule. It shall be the duty of the officer in charge of the Custom House to refuse port clearance to such vessels until all such demands be discharged.

VIII.—It shall be lawful for every officer, duly appointed as aforesaid, with the sanction of Government, to appoint as many places for performing quarantine on shore as may be required, and to provide accommodation at such places for passengers on board any vessel to which these rules are applicable, at certain fixed fees, to be determined from time to time by the Government, which fees shall be payable by the master or other person in charge of such vessel. No persons shall be permitted to leave the places so appointed within ten days from the date of the last case of the disease for which quarantine was enforced, unless with the previous sanction of the said officer duly authorized as aforesaid.

IX.—Disobedience to any of the above Rules Nos. I., II., III., IV., V., VI., and VIII., will subject the offender, and all persons aiding or abetting him, to a prosecution under Section 271 of the Indian Penal Code.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

Simla, the 14th September 1872.

No. 9.—The following Statutes relate to India and are hereby published for general information:

34 & 35 VICTORIA, CAP. 62.

An Act to enable Her Majesty to make regulations relative to the leave of absence of Indian Bishops on furlough and medical certificates.

[31st July 1871.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable Her Majesty to grant furlough allowances to the Bishops of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, who shall return to Europe for a limited period after residing in India a sufficient time to entitle them to the highest scale of pension," it was provided that Her Majesty should be enabled from time to time to grant permission to any Bishop of Calcutta who should have resided in the East Indies for a period of ten years, and to any Bishop of Madras or Bombay who should have resided in the East Indies for a period of fifteen years, to return to Europe for a period not exceeding eighteen calendar months:

And whereas it is expedient to alter and amend the rule thus laid down:

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same:

1. That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to make such rules as to the leave of absence of Indian Bishops on furlough or medical certificate as may seem to her expedient: Provided that no further expenditure of the revenues of India be incurred thereby than is already authorised under existing Acts of Parliament: and provided also, that the provisions of existing Acts of Parliament are not interfered with by such rules so far as regards the present Bishop of Calcutta.

34 & 35 VICTORIA, CAP. 91.

An Act to make further provision for the despatch of business by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

[21st August 1871.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further provision for the despatch of business by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council:

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Her Majesty may within twelve months after the passing of this Act, by warrant under her Sign Manual, appoint four persons qualified as in this Act mentioned, whether already members of such Judicial Committee or not, to act as members of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council under the provisions of this Act, and may from time to time within two years after the passing of this Act by a like warrant fill any vacancies occasioned by the death or otherwise in the offices of the persons so appointed.

Any persons appointed to act under the provisions of this Act as members of the said Judicial Committee must be specially qualified as follows; that is to say, must at the date of their appointment be or have been Judges of one of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, or a Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, or Madras or Bombay, or of the late Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

Where any person appointed in pursuance of the provisions herein contained to act as a member of the said Judicial Committee is at the date of his appointment a Judge as aforesaid, he shall on his appointment vacate his office as such Judge; but, as to pension, shall remain in the same position as if no such appointment had been made; and service as a member of the Judicial Committee shall for the purposes of pension be reckoned as service in the court from which he was removed.

Whereas doubts have been entertained as to the meaning and effect of the provisions of the Court of Probate Act and the Divorce Act as to the pension of the Judge of the Probate and Judge of the Divorce Courts: Be it declared and enacted that the said pension was intended to be and shall be similar in amount and in all other respects to the pension to which the Puisne Judges of the superior courts of common law are entitled.

There shall be paid to each of the said Judges of the Judicial Committee, so long as he shall hold such office, a salary of five thousand pounds a year, including any pension to which he may be entitled.

Any salary payable under this Act shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. It shall grow due from day to day, and shall be payable to the person entitled thereto, or to his executors or administrators, at such intervals in every year, not being longer than three months, as the Treasury may from time to time determine.

It shall be the duty of every person appointed to act as a paid member of the Judicial Committee under this Act to attend the sittings of the said Committee when summoned thereto, unless he shall be prevented by reasonable cause; and such members shall hold their office during good behaviour, and shall continue to hold their offices notwithstanding the demise of the Crown; but they shall be removable by Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, upon the address of both Houses of Parliament: Provided always they shall hold their offices subject to such arrangements as may be hereafter made by Parliament for the constitution of a supreme court of appellate jurisdiction:

Provided that no member of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council shall take part in the hearing of any appeal from any decision or judgment which he has given or assisted in giving.

2. In this Act—

The term "Superior Courts at Westminster" means Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law and Equity at Westminster, inclusive of the Court of Probate in England and the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, and the High Court of Admiralty of England.
Definition of "Superior Courts at Westminster."

3. This Act shall not, except in so far as is by this Act expressly provided, affect the Act of the session of the third and fourth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter forty-one, intituled "An Act for the better administration of justice in His Majesty's Privy Council," or any Act amending the same.

4. This Act may be cited as The Judicial Committee Act, 1872, and shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, be construed as one with any Acts for the time being in force relating to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.
Saving of Acts relating to Judicial Committee.
Short title.

35 VICTORIA, CAP. 12.

An Act to amend an Act of the fourth and fifth years of King William the Fourth, chapter twenty-four, intituled "An Act to alter, amend and consolidate the laws for regulating the pensions, compensations and allowances to be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in His Majesty's Service."

[13th May 1872.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session holden in the fourth and fifth years of King William the Fourth, chapter twenty-four, "to alter, amend and consolidate the laws for regulating the pensions, compensations and allowances to be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in His Majesty's Service," it is provided amongst other things that "in case any person enjoying any superannuation allowance in consequence of retiring from office on account of age, infirmity, or any other cause, or enjoying any compensation for past services, upon the abolition or reduction of office, shall be appointed to fill any office in any public department, every such allowance or compensation shall cease to be paid for any period subsequent to such appointment if the annual amount of the profits of the office to which he shall be appointed shall be equal to those of the office formerly held by him, and in case they shall not be equal to those of his former office, then no more of such superannuation allowance or compensation shall be paid to him than what with the salary of his new appointment shall be equal to that of his former office."

And whereas doubts have lately been entertained as to whether the expression "office in any public department," as used in the above-mentioned provisions, extends to public departments in any part of Her Majesty's dominions beyond the limits of the United Kingdom:

And whereas it is expedient to remove such doubts:

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. It is hereby declared that the expression "office in any public department," as used in the above-mentioned provisions of the said Act, extends, and shall from the date of the passing of the said Act be deemed to have extended, to any office in any public department in the British possessions.
Explanation of section twenty of 4 & 5 W. 4., c. 24.

2. In this Act "British possession" shall include any territories for the time being vested in Her Majesty by virtue of any Act of Parliament for the government of India; also any colony, plantation, island, territory, or settlement within Her Majesty's dominions, and not within the United Kingdom.
Short title.

3. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Superannuation Act, 1872."

No. 78.

INDIA OFFICE;
London, the 14th August 1872.

To His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD,—Your Excellency's letter of the 20th of June last, No. 79, reports that Colonel Rundall, of the Royal (Madras) Engineers, has vacated his appointment as Officiating Inspector General of Irrigation, in consequence of his succession to Colonel's allowances, but that, it being for the interests of the public service that he should retain the post for a further period of two years, rather than that a fresh appointment should be now made, you have re-appointed him to the office, subject to the confirmation of Her Majesty's Government.

2. I have much pleasure in conveying to Your Excellency my approval of the course which you have adopted in retaining the services of so experienced an officer as Colonel Rundall in the Irrigation Department.

I have, &c.,

The 18th September 1872.

No. 237.—The following Regulation for the relief of the embarrassed Talooqdars, Thakoors, and Jagheerdars of Ajmere, having been proposed by the Officiating Chief Commissioner of Ajmere to His Excellency the Governor General of India in Council, has been considered and approved by His Excellency the Governor General in Council, and has received his assent, and is now published for general information as having the force of law under Section 1 of the Statute 33 Vic., Cap. 3:

AJMERE REGULATION No. II. OF 1872.

A Regulation for the relief of the embarrassed Talooqdars, Thakoors, and Jagheerdars of Ajmere.

Whereas most of the Talooqdars, Thakoors, and Jagheerdars of the Districts of Ajmere are deeply in debt, and their immovable property is subject to mortgages, charges, liens and other encumbrances: And whereas it is expedient to provide for their relief in manner hereinafter appearing: And whereas a draft of this Regulation has been proposed by the Chief Commissioner of Ajmere to the Governor General in Council, and such draft has been taken into consideration and approved of by the Governor General in Council and assented to by the Governor General under Section 1 of the Statute 33 of Victoria, Chapter 3; It is hereby enacted as follows:

- I. In this Regulation "Chief Commissioner" means the Chief Commissioner of Ajmere; "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Ajmere; and "Talooqdar, Thakoor or Jagheerdar," means a person whose name is entered in the schedule hereto annexed.
- II. Whenever, within twelve months after this Regulation has been proclaimed in the District of Ajmere, any Talooqdar, Thakoor or Jagheerdar, or (when such Talooqdar, Thakoor or Jagheerdar is an infant, or of unsound mind, or an idiot) his guardian, committee or other legal curator, addresses the Commissioner in writing, stating that he is subject to, or that his immovable property is charged with, debts or liabilities other than debts due or liabilities incurred to Government, and requesting that the provisions of this Regulation shall be applied to his case, he shall be required to present an application in writing to the Commissioner.

III. The application shall contain the following particulars, and the statements therein contained shall be verified by the applicant or some other competent person in manner required by law for the verification of plaints.

- (a.)—The amount of the applicant's debts and liabilities, with all mortgages, charges, liens and other encumbrances affecting his property, expressed in Government rupees.
- (b.)—The estimated amount of his annual income expressed in Government rupees.
- (c.)—The amount of Government revenue chargeable on his property, including the amount (if any) still remaining due on account of any advances made to him by Government.
- (d.)—The particulars of his debts and liabilities with the interest (if any) due to date.
- (e.)—A declaration that the list of his debts includes all his pecuniary liabilities, personal or otherwise, of which he is aware.
- (f.)—A declaration that he has been made acquainted with the provisions of this Regulation, and is anxious to have his property managed under it, and agrees to abide by the provisions contained herein and in the rules made hereunder.

IV. On receiving any such application the Commissioner may, by order published in the local Gazette, declare the immovable property of the Talooqdar, Thakoor or Jagheerdar to be under the management of his court.

V. On such publication all proceedings in respect to such debts or liabilities which may then be pending in any civil court in British India shall be barred; and all processes, executions and attachments for, or in respect of, such debts or liabilities shall become null and void.

VI. So long as such management continues, all civil courts, except the court of the Commissioner, shall be precluded from entertaining any application, petition or suit respecting such property:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Commissioner referring any such case for investigation and decision by any court subordinate to him.

And when such application, petition or suit has been referred to such court, it shall be guided by the rules for the time being in force, relating to civil procedure, except that no orders as to the mode of execution of any decree passed in the suit shall be made by such court.

And when such court has passed its decision (subject to the ordinary right of appeal in civil cases), such court or appellate court shall certify its final decision to the Commissioner, who shall proceed to pass such order for its execution as shall be just and expedient with reference to other claims admitted against the property.

VII. When the property has been declared under Rule IV. to be under the management of the court, notice shall be served on every creditor mentioned in the application to be present in the Commissioner's court, on a convenient date to be fixed by the Commissioner, and to produce proof of the amount due to such creditor.

VIII. At the same time a notice shall be published in the local Gazette calling on all persons having claims on the property, or on the Talooqdar, Thakoor or Jagheerdar, personally to appear before the Commissioner within three months from the date of the publication, and substantiate their claims.

If any such claimant fail so to appear within that period, his claim shall be barred:

Provided that when proof is made to the Commissioner that the claimant was unable so to appear, the Commissioner may admit such claim within the further period of nine months from the expiration of the said period of three months.

IX. All notices under this Regulation shall be published in English, Oordoo, and Hindoo, in the local Gazette, and in such other manner as the Commissioner may direct.

X. Every claimant shall with his claim present full particulars thereof.

Every document on which he relies in support of his claim shall also be filed in the Commissioner's court.

If the document be an entry in any book, the claimant shall produce the book in court, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies; the book shall be marked by the Commissioner for the purpose of identification; and, after the copy has been examined and compared with the original, the book itself shall be returned.

XI. If the debt be acknowledged by the debtor, and there be no reason to believe that any collusion exists between the creditor and the debtor, then the amount of such debt shall be entered in the schedule of debts admitted against the property.

XII. If the debt be denied, or the amount be disputed, or collusion, fraud or extortion be suspected, the Commissioner may refuse so to enter the whole debt or such portion thereof as he thinks fit.

XIII. If the Commissioner see fit, he may refer the suit for the whole debt, or any portion thereof, to any court subordinate to him for investigation and decision:

Provided that the creditor shall file in the Commissioner's court a stamp paper of the value prescribed by the Court Fees Act, 1870, for the plaint in a suit for such debt or portion.

XIV. If the Commissioner does not see fit to refer the case to a subordinate court, the creditor may appeal against the Commissioner's order refusing to enter his debt, or any portion thereof, to the Chief Commissioner, whose decision thereon shall be final.

XV. The Commissioner shall prepare a schedule of such debts and liabilities, and a scheme for the settlement thereof, and shall submit such scheme for the sanction of the Chief Commissioner.

XVI. When the Chief Commissioner has sanctioned the scheme so submitted, it shall be announced to the creditors and to the Talooqdar, Thakoor or Jagheerdar concerned, and shall then be carried into effect.

XVII. Every scheme so sanctioned shall provide

- (a) for the due maintenance of the Talooqdar, Thakoor or Jagheerdar, and his family, and
- (b) for the payment of the Government dues in respect of the property, and for any expenditure that may be deemed necessary for its repairs and improvement:

and shall declare

- (c) whether any creditors, and, if any, what creditors, have a preferential right on the property, and, if so, what is the nature of such preferential right, and how it is to be exercised:
- (d) when and how the remaining creditors shall be paid: and
- (e) what rate of interest, if any, shall be paid on the debts mentioned in the schedule until they are liquidated.

XVIII. If the property or any part thereof be in the possession of a mortgagee, the Commissioner shall have power to cause the same to be delivered to such person as the Commissioner thinks fit, as if a decree therefor had been made in his favour, but without prejudice to the mortgagees preferring his claim under the provisions herein contained.

XIX. The Commissioner shall have power to raise any money which may be required for the settlement of the debts or liabilities to which the Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar is subject, or with which his immoveable property or any part thereof is charged, either by mortgage of the whole of the interest of the Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar in such property or any part thereof; or by letting by way of mortgage the same property or any part thereof for a term not exceeding twenty years from the date of the letting:

Provided that, in the former case, the previous consent of the Chief Commissioner shall have been obtained, and that in the latter case the previous consent of the Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar shall have been obtained.

XX. It being desirable to retain the authority and position of the Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar while arrangements are in force for relieving his property of encumbrances, the Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, appoint the Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar to be manager of his property subject to the conditions and stipulations contained in the scheme submitted to, and sanctioned by, the Chief Commissioner.

XXI. So long as such conditions and stipulations are complied with, the Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar shall be left in undisturbed possession of his property.

XXII. If any such conditions or stipulations be not complied with by the Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar, the Commissioner shall, in the first instance, warn him that the management of the property will be taken out of his hands, if he continue to fail in such compliance.

XXIII. If after this further default be made, the Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner, appoint a manager of the property other than the Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar.

XXIV. From the date of such appointment the Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar shall be incompetent to grant valid receipts for the rents and profits of any kind arising or accruing from his property.

XXV. From such date the manager shall have, for the purpose of realizing and recovering the rents and profits of the property, and for general management, the same powers as the Talooqdar, Thakoör and Jagheerdar had for such purpose previously to his removal from the management of his property.

XXVI. During the management of his property by the court, no Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar shall have power to borrow money, or to alienate his property, or any part thereof; nor shall he be bound by any contract made by him during such management, unless it is in writing, and has been entered into with the consent of the Commissioner, and bears the Commissioner's official signature and seal.

XXVII. An account in English and Hindoo of all claims admitted and payments made in each case under this Regulation shall be kept in the Commissioner's court; and the Talooqdar, Thakoör or Jagheerdar, and also all his creditors and their respective representatives in interest, may at all convenient times inspect such account.

XXVIII. Every document filed under this Regulation by a creditor in proof of his claim shall, after the claim has been admitted and entered in the schedule, be defaced or cancelled by writing across it the fact under the official signature and seal of the Commissioner.

XXIX. For the purposes of this Regulation, the Commissioner may enforce the attendance of witnesses, and compel them to give evidence by the same means and, as far as possible, in the same manner, as is provided in the case of a civil court by the Code of Civil Procedure.

XXX. The Commissioner may administer an oath or affirmation in such form as he thinks fit to any person examined before him touching any of the matters to be enquired into under this Regulation.

XXXI. Every investigation conducted by the Commissioner with reference to any claim preferred before him under this Regulation, or to any matter connected with any such claim, shall be deemed a judicial proceeding within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

And every statement made by any person examined by or before the Commissioner with reference to such investigation, whether upon oath or otherwise, shall be deemed evidence within the meaning of the same Code.

XXXII. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, make additional rules consistent with this Regulation to provide for all matters connected with its enforcement.

Such rules, when approved by the Governor General in Council, and published in the local Gazette, shall have the force of law.

XXXIII. Every manager appointed under this Regulation shall be deemed a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

XXXIV. No suit or other proceeding shall be maintained against any person in respect of anything done or purporting to be done by him in good faith pursuant to this Regulation.

London, the 14th August 1872.

To His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD,—Referring to my despatch No. 155, dated 22nd June 1871, on the subject of the employment of Royal Engineer officers in the civil departments, I have to inform you that, in order to provide for equality of promotion in the different cadres, it is necessary that the rule which has been introduced into the British service as to the non-seconding of officers serving in civil departments should be made applicable to the Indian cadres.

2. In future, therefore, no officer of the late Indian engineers will be seconded and succeeded in his corps, but promotion will be given in succession to those who may have served the specified time in appointments the holders of which have been hitherto seconded.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) ARGYLL.

The 27th September 1872.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

A letter No. 4047, dated 11th September, from the Government of Bengal, giving cover to one from the Inspector General of Hospitals, reporting the disobedience of orders and insubordination of certain supernumerary Sub-Assistant Surgeons, and recommending their dismissal from the service.

A petition addressed to the Governor General in Council by the said Sub-Assistant Surgeons, dated September 19th.

The resources of the Medical Department were and are still strained to the utmost to keep up the supply of medical subordinates for the fever districts of the Burdwan Division, but yet the supply is insufficient.

2. The circumstance led His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal to consider that some of the passed students of Sub-Assistant Surgeon's grade, doing duty as supernumeraries at the Medical College Hospital, might be utilized with advantage to the people, and some benefit to their own professional knowledge, by being placed temporarily at the disposal of the Civil Surgeon of Burdwan for service there. Under the orders quoted on the margin, these young men draw as supernumeraries, until posted to permanent appointments, Rs. 50 a month from the date of their declaration of their willingness to serve Government, and are liable to be distributed as supernumeraries on that salary in Bengal and the North-Western Provinces as the public service may require. Of late, however, it has not been usual to send them into the interior as supernumeraries, and they have been allowed to remain attached to the Medical College Hospital, but doing really little or no actual duty till opportunities have occurred for employing them permanently.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor, thinking it desirable that the services of these young men should be made available, instructed the Inspector General of Hospitals to revert generally to the practice of employing supernumeraries in the mofussil, and directed specially that any sent at the present time to the Burdwan Districts should receive the full travelling allowances of a Sub-Assistant Surgeon if required to move about; while if any of them were entrusted with the separate charge of an endemic dispensary, he should be at once allowed the full pay of a 3rd Grade Sub-Assistant Surgeon, viz., Rs. 100 a month, though still, under the rules, a supernumerary.

4. The Inspector General accordingly issued orders on the 9th August, through the Principal of the Medical College, that the four supernumerary Sub-Assistant Surgeons named on the margin should proceed to Burdwan and place themselves under the orders of the Civil Surgeon. Instead, however, of obeying, they, with all the other supernumeraries at the Presidency, formed a deputation to the Inspector General, and stated their unwillingness to go to Burdwan on a salary of Rs. 50. The special conditions under which they were going to Burdwan were explained to them, and they were advised to obey first and remonstrate afterwards, through the proper channel, if they found they had then any cause of complaint. On the 17th August the orders that had been passed were repeated, but with no other effect than to call forth from the officers named a petition addressed to the Inspector General of Hospitals direct, protesting against the action of their superiors. They were told to submit this petition through the Civil Surgeon of Burdwan, the officer under whose orders they had been placed.

5. The Sub-Assistant Surgeons disobeyed this order, saying that as they had declined to go to Burdwan they were not subordinate to the Civil Surgeon of that place, but to the Principal of the Medical College, and addressed a petition to that officer, in which they begged to tender their resignation of their appointments unless their petition received a favorable reply. They also wrote to the Inspector General of Hospitals, and refused to go to Burdwan until what they asked for had been granted. To give them a last opportunity of re-considering their conduct, the Inspector General issued orders that, within 24 hours of the receipt of his memorandum, the Sub-Assistant Surgeons should proceed to Burdwan, and, having ascertained that these orders were also disobeyed, the Inspector General of Hospitals represented the case for the orders of Government, with the recommendation that the officers concerned be dismissed the Government service, and that the fact of this dismissal be published in the Gazette of India. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal has expressed his concurrence with the recommendation of the Inspector General.

6. The supernumerary Sub-Assistant Surgeons have not only after repeated warnings persistently refused to obey the orders of their superiors, but they have shown this insubordination at a time when medical aid to relieve their suffering fellow-countrymen in Burdwan was urgently demanded. The orders which they received were not inconsistent with the engagements into which they had entered, and His Excellency the Governor General in Council, after a full consideration of all the circumstances of the case, is pleased to direct that Sub-Assistant Surgeons Troyluknath Bose, Keshub Chunder Mookerjee, Jadoonath Dey, and Doorga Churn Singhee, be dismissed the Government service. And that this order be published for general information.

By Order of the Governor General of India in Council.
